

KRISTIN BJORNERUD: BIOGRAPHY

Kristin Bjornerud received her BFA from the University of Lethbridge (2002) and her MFA from the University of Saskatchewan (2005). She has exhibited her work in public and commercial galleries, international art fairs, and artist-run centres across Canada. She has been awarded grants from the Canada Council for the Arts, the Ontario Arts Council, the Saskatchewan Arts Board, the Conseil des arts et des lettres du Québec, and the Finnish Culture Foundation. Her work is represented in numerous public and private collections including the Canada Council Art Bank, the Bank of Montreal, the City of Ottawa Fine Art Collection, the Saskatchewan Arts Board, and the Canadian Collection of the Brucebo Museum (Sweden). Kristin will be artist in residence at the Klondike Institute of Arts and Culture in Dawson City, Yukon (Winter 2017).

Kristin Bjornerud currently lives and works in Montréal, Québec.